About the Japanese American Citizens League

Founded in 1929, the JACL is the largest Asian American civil and human rights organization with over 10,000 members, 105 active chapters, and six offices located throughout the United States and Japan. The formation of the local San Jose Chapter dates back to 1923, when it was called the American Loyalty League. Through the years, the JACL has participated in landmark cases and issues, such as an amici in Brown et. al v. The Board of Education of Topeka, Kansas (school segregation) and Loving v. Virginia (interracial marriage), the historic Jobs and Freedom March on Washington, D.C. in 1963 and on the 50th anniversary of the March on Washington, D.C. this past summer. The most significant campaign spearheaded by the JACL is the successful passage of the Civil Liberties Act of 1988 granting Redress and Reparations for Japanese Americans incarcerated during World War II.

Understanding that Japanese Americans have an important role to play in the larger framework of the Asian American Pacific Islander (AAPI) community, the current leadership of National JACL headed by National President David Lin and Executive Director Priscilla Ouchida, continues its civil rights advocacy by addressing current issues including: health care reform, immigration, education, historic preservation, and much more.
WHY SPONSOR JAACL?

A FEW QUICK FACTS...

• Asian American buying power continues to increase and is projected to reach $1 trillion by 2017.1
• There are currently nearly 19 million Asian Americans living in the U.S., and Asian Americans are the fastest growing ethnic minority group at a 58% growth rate over the past 3 years.2
• In 2012, Asian American households spent 19% more than overall households.3
• Asian American consumers are especially brand loyal and prefer to do business with companies that support their community.

WHY SPONSOR CONVENTION?

• Connect directly with hundreds of Japanese Americans and Asian Americans from across the United States
• Reach an under-served market of Asian American consumers loyal to brands in support of the JAACL
• Increase brand visibility by associating your business with the oldest and largest AAPI civil and human rights organization in the United States.
• Receive complimentary tickets to Convention events
• Receive acknowledgement in the Convention booklet, the Pacific Citizen newspaper (reaches over 25,000) the JACL Digest (reaches over 10,000) and on the JAACL National website.

ADVERTISE OR EXHIBIT WITH THE JAACL CONVENTION

• Reach thousands of JAACL members from across the nation as well as AAPI community leaders, influencers and consumers by placing an ad in the JAACL Convention booklet and being recognized in JAACL media outlets.
• Increase visibility and awareness of your company, business or organization.
• Show support for your local JAACL chapter or district.
• Honor or recognize a member or individual from your JAACL chapter or district.
• Promote upcoming programs or events.
